How to Make a Singular Noun Possessive (Ownership)

►The good news is that there is ONLY ONE WAY to form a singular possessive: add 's

Examples:

The robes belonging to the one judge: The judge's robes.

The book belonging to James: James's book

►Note: Treat irregular and non-changing nouns like singular nouns: add 's

The toys belonging to the children: The children's toys.

The wool of the sheep: The sheep's wool.

Practice: Rewrite the sentence using possessive nouns (in bold).

1. The food belonging to the cat: the food
2. The money belonging to the church: the money
3. The house belonging to Mr. Jones: Mr. house
4. The issues of the woman: the issues
5. The issues of the women: the issues
6. The cape of the hero: the cape
7. The exit of the bus: the exit
8. The food belonging to the mice: the food
9. The choice of the people: the choice
10. The car belonging to Chris: car
11. The coat belonging to the man: the coat
12. The coats belonging to the men: the coats